Course Overview

Developing a sound basis for aspiring managers and leaders, this popular course is for junior/middle managers or those hoping to achieve that role and is designed to develop your management skills whatever your industry or organisational type.

The programme is structured on a modular basis and each module is delivered using a range of techniques including lectures, group work, case studies and technology.

What You Will Study

The CMI Level 5 Diploma in Management and Leadership encompasses these modules:

- Managing Stakeholder Relationships
- Using Reflective Practice to Inform Personal and Professional Development
- Managing Change
- Principles of Developing, Managing and Leading Individuals and Teams to Achieve Success
- Managing Finance
- Managing Projects to Achieve Results
- Creating and Delivering Operational Plans
- Principles of Management and Leadership in an Organisational Context

Attendance Expectations

Virtual sessions will be delivered on two mornings per month via Microsoft Teams.

How You Will Be Assessed

For each of the modules, you will need to complete a written assessment based on relevant workplace scenarios.

Entry Requirements

English and Maths at Level 2 (Functional Skills or GCSEs at Grade 4 or above).

Where the applicant does not meet the course entry requirements - Level 2 or GCSE qualification at Grade 4 or above in English and/or Maths, entry will be considered on previous leadership and management qualifications.
