HEART OF YORKSHIRE EDUCATION GROUP COURSE INFORMATION:

ILM (NVQ) Diploma in Management and Leadership

BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

Heart of Yorkshire Education Group

An award of the Institute of Leadership & Management

Course Overview

This work-based course is designed for practising middle managers, with responsibility for operations, resources, implementation of change, managing people, budgets and information, to develop their management skills and knowledge.

This qualification combines collation of practical work-based evidence with knowledge units.

What You Will Study

Learners study four mandatory units which cover contributing to a strategic plan, designing a business process, managing strategic change, and leadership. Students then choose from a diverse range of optional units to complete the qualification, tailoring their learning to meet their individual and organisational needs.

Attendance Expectations

You will need to meet with your assessor approximately every four to six weeks. Meetings in the workplace are arranged at mutually convenient times and dates.

How You Will Be Assessed

Competency units will be assessed via the collation of a portfolio of evidence to meet assessment criteria. Evidence could include reflective accounts, professional discussions, witness testimonies, photographs, and work product evidence such as minutes, reports, emails, and procedures.

Knowledge units are assessed via written assignments and professional discussion.

Entry Requirements

GCSEs at Grade 9-4, including English and Maths.
OR
Level 2 Functional Skills in English and Maths.
