Course Overview

This programme is for people who support teachers in schools and who work largely under supervision. It will enable you to obtain a nationally recognised qualification while you work.

You will need to attend portfolio guidance sessions at regular intervals during your course with your assessor; these will help you to put together your course evidence. Funded places will be required to attend support sessions via Microsoft Teams for one-to-one training with their assessor.

What You Will Study

You will need to achieve nine mandatory plus two optional units. The mandatory units are:

- Child and Young Person Development
- Safeguarding the Welfare of Children and Young People
- Communication and Professional Relationships with Children, Young People and Adults
- Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in Work with Children and Young People
- Help Improve Own and Team Practice in Schools
- Maintain and Support Relationships with Children and Young People
- Support Children and Young People's Health & Safety
- Support Children and Young People's Positive Behaviour
- Support Learning Activities

Attendance Expectations

Your assessor will plan and assess your practical work in the workplace. You will also be required to attend regular portfolio guidance sessions with your assessor.

How You Will Be Assessed

You will work with your assessor who will guide you to complete projects, case studies and assignments as well as collating evidence from other sources.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements. However, since this qualification is assessed in the workplace, you need a paid or voluntary position within a school setting that
