Course Overview

This course is for learners who have successfully completed the Level 2 VRQ Diploma in Women's Hairdressing.

The course is designed to build upon those skills and knowledge gained on the VRQ and equip you with the work ready skills you will need to gain employment on successful completion.

What You Will Study

You will gain hands-on experience in:

- Client Consultation
- Cutting
- Colouring
- Styling
- Setting
- Plaiting and twisting

Plus either:

- Cut mens hair

OR

- Salon reception

You will be assessed not only on your practical skills and your theory knowledge, but also on punctuality, reliability and professionalism. You will work and be assessed on clients who are paying members of the public. As part of this programme you will complete one week on work experience in a salon. This may involve travelling some distance and working late evenings where necessary.

How You Will Be Assessed

- Coursework
- Exam
- Continual assessment of practical skills

Entry Requirements
