

Level 3 Certificate in Bookkeeping

Course Overview

This introduction to the subject will also appeal to those wishing to take their accountancy studies and career in accountancy to the next level. This course will benefit those who are working in a role requiring book-keeping skills, or are wishing to learn these skills.

The Wakefield evening course will be carried out using a blended approach which consists of both face to face teaching and self study. The full day course at Wakefield will be all face to face teaching.

Whichever method of study is chosen, there will be additional learning at home required to support your studies.

What You Will Study

This qualification will help to develop the complex skills and knowledge necessary to work in a bookkeeping role. Students completing this qualification will become competent in financial processes including accounting principles and concepts, advanced bookkeeping and preparing financial statements. They will also be introduced to business issues regarding payroll and value added tax (VAT), including an understanding of the documents and reports produced on payroll software, timescales for submissions and payments.

The course consists of two units:

- Financial Accounting Preparing Financial Statements
- Tax Processes for Business

Attendance Expectations

You will be required to attend sessions dependant on the study method chosen.
