WAKEFIELD COLLEGE COURSE INFORMATION:

Level 3 Performing & Production Arts (Musical Theatre)

PERFORMING ARTS
Wakefield College

In Partnership with Empath Action CIC, Actual Size Theatre Company

Course Overview

This Musical Theatre course at Mechanics' Performing Arts, is for those who wish to pursue a career in the ever expanding and increasingly popular industry of musical theatre. It is a unique course that focuses on rigorous training in the three art forms of dance, drama and singing, alongside vocational and academic study that supplements and supports the practical learning. There will be a wide range of opportunities for you to perform in our professional theatre, alongside chances to attend professional performances in both regional and national venues. You will be taught by industry experienced tutors alongside visiting professionals working in the West End and nationally.

This is a practical, industry-related course with theoretical exploration threaded throughout. You will develop through weekly technique classes in the three main disciplines and undertake performance work that is based on realistic industrial activities within the specialism of musical theatre.

You will develop your abilities to learn and perfect musical theatre work and be supported in working towards your own career aspirations. You will have the opportunity to show your work in public performances, at our 160-seat professional theatre, and at other performance venues.
