Course Overview

FLEX VOTE is a highly supported programme designed to improve your confidence, personal and social skills, employability skills, Maths and English as well as an opportunity to sample different vocational tasters. FLEX VOTE will help you to develop the skills you need to progress onto a Level 1 vocational course, a supported internship, traineeship, or apprenticeship. As you will try a range of vocational tasters, this programme will help you decide on your career pathway.

Through lots of different activities, you will be working on gaining self-confidence, developing teamwork skills, and improving your independence.

You will learn by a variety of practical sessions, educational visits and classroom based learning.

What You Will Study

Your programme of study will concentrate on improving and developing:

- Personal and Social Skills
- Employability
- Maths
- English
- Vocational Options
- Digital Functional Skills (E3 Level)

How You Will Be Assessed

By a variety of means which could include:

- Portfolio building
- Production of practical work
- Assessment tests

You may take external qualifications in English and Maths and will complete an accredited course at your level of study, which include either an Award or Extended Award (at Entry 2 or Entry 3) in Employability. Personal development is also an inclusive part of the qualification. You will also receive Heart of Yorkshire certificates for elements of the course which are not externally assessed.
